

BYLAWS OF
SANTA BARBARA COUNTY FIRE SAFE COUNCIL
A CALIFORNIA PUBLIC BENEFIT CORPORATION

ARTICLE 1. OFFICES

Section 1. Principal Office. The Santa Barbara County Fire Safe Council (hereinafter referred to as "SBCFSC" or the "Council") corporation's principal office is fixed and located at the Office of Emergency Management, 4408 Cathedral Oak Road, Santa Barbara California 93110. The board of Directors (herein called the "Board") is granted full power and authority, to change said principal office from one location to another. Any such change shall be noted in the bylaws opposite this section to state the new location.

ARTICLE 11. MISSION STATEMENT AND OBJECTIVES

Section 1. Mission Statement. The mission of the SANTA BARBARA COUNTY FIRE SAFE COUNCIL is to unify public and private organizations in Santa Barbara County to educate, motivate and coordinate to minimize losses associated with wildfires.

Section 2. Objectives. The SANTA BARBARA COUNTY FIRE SAFE COUNCIL shall serve the community by 1) educating homeowners in fire-prone areas how to minimize wildfire losses through the use of proper building materials, landscaping techniques and brush clearance; 2) developing cooperating relationships between public and private organizations to coordinate pre-wildfire planning; 3) developing cooperative relationships between local fire agencies to establish common wildland fire prevention goals and policies; 4) becoming financially independent through in-kind donations and financial contributions; and 5) to support projects, not limited to real and improved property, that benefit the Santa Barbara County community.

ARTICLE III. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Members. The corporation shall have members. Until further defined by an amendment to these bylaws, an eligible member in good standing shall be one who has paid his/her dues for the current membership year and is eligible to hold office and vote in elections. The membership year shall be effective immediately and last for one year. .

Section 2. Membership Classes. There shall be three classifications of membership, each classification having one vote in any election:

- a) Individual/Residential membership,
- b) Organization/Homeowner Association,
- c) Fire Agencies, and
- d) Business

Section 3. Honorary Membership. The Board of Directors may approve a non-member of the Council as an Honorary Member in recognition of his/her service to the Council or the community or to the purposes of the corporation. Honorary members do not have to be, or have been, a member of the Council. Honorary members have no vote in any election.

ARTICLE IV. DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. Subject to limitations of the articles and these bylaws, the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the board. The board may delegate management of the activities of the corporation to any person or persons, a management company, or committees, however composed, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the board. Without prejudice to such general powers, but subject to the same limitations, it is hereby expressly declared that the board shall have the following powers in addition to the other powers enumerated in these bylaws.

- (a) To select and remove all the other officers, agents, and employees of the corporation, prescribe powers and duties for them as may not be inconsistent with law, the articles, or these bylaws, fix their compensation, and require from them security for faithful service.
- (b) To adopt, make and use a corporate seal, and to alter the form of such seal from time to time, as they may deem best.
- (c) To borrow money and incur indebtedness for the purposes of the corporation, and to cause to be executed and delivered therefore, in the corporate name, promissory notes, bonds, debentures, deeds of trust, mortgages, pledges, hypothecations, or other evidences of debt and securities therefore.

Section 2. Number of Directors. The authorized number of directors shall be at least five but no more than seventeen until changed by amendment to these bylaws. The exact number of directors shall be determined by the board of directors.

Section 3. Selection and Term of Office. Directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the board and serve a one year term. Directors are eligible for re-election each year as long as they are up to date with their membership dues and approved by the Executive Committee. There is no consecutive term limit for Directors.

Section 4. Vacancies. Subject to the provisions of Section 5226 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law, any director may resign effective on giving written notice to the chairperson of the board, the president, the secretary, or the board, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be selected before such time, to take office when the resignation becomes effective.

Vacancies on the board shall be filled in the same manner as the director(s) whose office(s) is (are) vacant was (were) selected, provided that vacancies to be filled by election by directors may be filled by a majority of the remaining directors, although less than a quorum, or by a sole remaining director. Each director so selected shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the replaced director, and until a successor has been selected and qualified.

A vacancy in the board shall be deemed to exist in case of death, resignation, or removal of any director, or if the authorized number of directors is increased,

The board may declare vacant the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, or convicted of a felony, or found by a final order of judgment of any court to have breached any duty arising under Article 3 of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director prior to expiration of the director's term of office.

Section 5. Place of Meeting. Meetings of the board shall be held at any place within or without the State of California which has been designated from time to time by the board. In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, on Zoom, or any other location selected by the Board.

Section 6. Annual Meetings. The board shall hold an annual meeting for the purpose of organization, selection of directors and officers, and transaction of other business. Annual meetings of the board shall be held on the fourth Thursday in May or at another date set by the board. All members in good standing will be notified in writing (email acceptable) of the date and time of the election and the slate of officers to be voted on.

Section 7. Regular Meetings. Meetings of the board shall be held on the fourth Thursday of each month except November and December, or at another date set by the board.

Section 8. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the board for any purpose or purposes may be called at any time by the president, the vice president, the secretary, or any two directors.

Special meetings of the board shall be held on two days' notice by first-class mail or eight hours' notice given personally or by telephone, telegraph, telex, email, or other similar means of communication. Any such notice shall be addressed or delivered to each director at such director's address as it is shown on the records of the corporation or as may have been given to the corporation by the director for purposes of notice or, if such address is not shown on such records or is not readily ascertainable, at the place at which the meetings of the directors are regularly held.

Notice by mail shall be deemed to have been given at the time a written notice is deposited in the United States mails, postage prepaid. Any other written notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is personally delivered to the recipient or is delivered to a common carrier for transmission, or actually transmitted by the person giving the notice by electronic means, to the recipient. Oral notice shall be deemed to have been given at the time it is communicated, in person or by telephone or wireless, to the recipient, or to a person at the office of the recipient who the person giving the notice has reason to believe will promptly communicate it to the receiver.

Section 9. Quorum. A majority of the directors constitute a quorum of the board for transaction of business, except to adjourn as provided in section 12 of this article. Every act or decision done or made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the board, unless a greater number is required by law or by the articles, except as provided in the next sentence. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a majority of the required quorum for such meeting.

Section 10. Participation in Meetings by Conference Telephone. Directors may participate in a meeting through use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as all Directors participating in such meeting can hear one another.

Section 11. Waiver of Notice. Notice of a meeting need not be given to any director who signs a waiver of notice, or a written consent to holding the meeting, or an approval of the minutes thereof, whether before or after the meeting, or who attends the meeting without protesting, prior thereto or at its commencement, the lack of notice to such director. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be filed with the corporate records, or made a part of the minutes of the meetings.

Section 12. Adjournment. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any directors' meeting to another time and place. Notice of the time and place of holding an adjourned meeting need not be given to absent directors if the time and place is fixed at the meeting adjourned, except as provided in the next sentence. If the meeting is adjourned for more than 24 hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given prior to the time of the adjourned meeting to the directors who were present at the time of the adjournment.

Section 13. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the board may be taken without a meeting if all Directors shall individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such consent or consents shall have the same effect as a unanimous vote of the board, and shall be filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the board.

Section 14. Rights of Inspection. Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records, and documents of every kind, and to inspect the physical properties of the corporation of which such person is a director.

Section 15. Committees. The board may appoint one or more committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and delegate to such committees any of the authority of the board, except with respect to:

- a) Approval of any action for which the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law also requires approval of the Directors or approval of a majority of all Directors;
- b) Filling of vacancies on the board or on any committee;

- c) Fixing of compensation of the directors for serving on the board or on any committee;
- d) Amendment or repeal of bylaws or the adoption of the new bylaws;
- e) Amendment or repeal of any resolution of the board which by its express terms is not so amendable or repealable;
- f) Appointment of other committees of the board or the Directors thereof,
- g) Approval of any self-dealing transaction, as such transactions are defined in Section 5233(a) of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law.

Any such committee must be created, and the Directors thereof appointed, by resolution adopted by a majority of the authorized number of directors then in office, provided a quorum is present, and any such committee may be designated an executive committee or by such other name as the board shall specify. The board may appoint, in the same manner, alternate Directors of any committee who may replace any absent member at any meeting of the committee. The board shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which proceedings of any such committee shall be conducted. In the absence of any such prescription, such committee shall have the power to prescribe the manner in which its proceedings shall be conducted. Unless the board or such committee shall otherwise provide, the regular and special meetings and other actions of any such committee shall be governed by the provisions of this article applicable to meetings and actions of the board. Minutes shall be kept of each meeting of each committee. Results and actions of each committee shall be reported back to the board.

Section 16. Fees and Compensation. Directors may receive compensation, if any, for their services, and such reimbursement for expenses, as may be fixed or determined by the board.

Section 17: Directors as Employees. A director may not at any time serve as an employee of the organization, as the term “employee” is defined in California law. Should a director be approved for hiring as an employee, the director shall be deemed to have resigned as of the effective date of acceptance of the employment position.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, a secretary, and a treasurer. The corporation may also have, at the discretion of the board, one or more vice presidents, one or more assistant secretaries, one or more assistant treasurers, and such other officers as may be elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this article. Any number of offices may be held by the same person except that neither the secretary nor the treasurer may serve concurrently as the president or chairperson of the board.

Section 2. Election. The officers of the corporation, except such officers as may be elected or appointed in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 or Section 5 of this article, shall be chosen annually by, and shall serve at the pleasure of the board, and shall hold their respective offices until their resignation, removal, or other disqualification from service, or until their respective successors shall be elected. Notice of assembling a ballot for elections shall be made public two months prior to elections. The ballot shall be assembled and voted on at a meeting of the board one month prior to elections.

Section 3. Subordinate Officers. The board may elect, and may empower the president to appoint, such other officers as the business of the corporation may require, each of whom shall hold office for such period, have such authority, and perform such duties as are provided in these bylaws or as the board may from time to time determine.

Section 4. Removal and Resignation. Any officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the board at any time, or except in the case of an officer chosen by the board, by any officer upon whom such power of removal may be conferred by the board. Any such removal shall be without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the officer under any contract of employment of the officer.

Any officer may resign at any time by given written notice to the corporation, but without prejudice to the rights, if any, of the corporation under any contract to which the officer is a party. Any such resignation shall take effect at the date of the receipt of such notice, or at any later time specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 5. Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause shall be filled in the manner prescribed in these bylaws for regular election or appointment to such office, provided that such vacancies shall be filled as they occur, and not on an annual basis.

Section 6. President. The president is the general manager and chief executive officer of the corporation, and has, subject to the control of the board, general supervision, direction, and control of the business and officers of the corporation. The president shall preside at all meetings of the board. The president has the general powers and duties of management usually vested in the office of president and general manager of a corporation, and such other powers and duties as may be prescribed by the board.

Section 7. Vice President. In the absence or disability of the president, the vice president, if any is appointed, shall perform all the duties of the president, and, when so acting, shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restriction on, the president. The vice president shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed for him/her respectively by the board.

Section 8. Secretary. The secretary shall keep or cause to be kept, at the principal office of, or such other place as the board may order, a book of minutes of all meetings of the board and its committees, with the time and place of holding, whether regular or special, and if special, how authorized, the notice thereof given, the names of those present at the board and committee meetings, and the proceedings thereof. The secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, at the principal office in the State of California the original or a copy of the corporation's articles and bylaws, as amended to date.

The secretary shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the board and any committees thereof required by these bylaws or by law to be given, shall keep the seal of the corporation in safe custody, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board.

Section 9. Treasurer. The treasurer is the chief financial officer of the corporation, and shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct accounts of the properties and business transactions of the corporation. The books of account shall at all times be open to inspection by any director.

The treasurer shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, all funds and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the board. The treasurer shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the board, shall render to the president and the directors, whenever they request it, an account of all transactions as treasurer and of financial condition of the corporation, and shall have such other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the board. The treasurer shall complete and file necessary State and Federal tax return each year. The Council's fiscal year is the calendar year (January 1 through December 31).

ARTICLE VI. OTHER PROVISIONS

Section 1. Endorsement of Documents: Contracts. Subject to the provisions of applicable law, any note, mortgage, evidence of indebtedness, contract, conveyance, or other instrument in writing and any assignment or endorsement thereof having been approved by the board and executed or entered into between the corporation and any other person, when signed by the president, or treasurer of the corporation, shall be valid and binding on the corporation in the absence of actual knowledge on the part of the other person that the signing officers had no authority to execute the same. Any such instruments may be signed by any other person or persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be determined by the board, and, unless so authorized by the board, no officer, agent, or employee shall have any power or authority to bind the corporation by any contract or engagement, or pledge its credit, or to render it liable for any purpose or amount.

Section 2. Construction and Definitions. Unless the context otherwise requires, the general provisions, rules, construction, and definitions contained in the General Provisions of the California Nonprofit Corporation Law and in the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these bylaws

Section 3. Amendments. These bylaws may be amended or repealed by approval of the board.

ARTICLE VII. INDEMNIFICATION

Section 1. Right of Indemnification. To the fullest extent permitted by law, this corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees, and other persons described in Section 7237(a) of the California Corporations Code, including persons formerly occupying any such position, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding," as that term is used in that section, and including an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. "Expenses," as used in these bylaws, shall have the same meaning as in Section 7237(a) of the California Corporations Code.

Section 2. Approval of Indemnity. On written request to the board by any person seeking indemnification under Section 7237(b) or Section 7237(c) of the California Corporations Code, the board shall promptly determine under Section 7237(e) of the California Corporations Code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 7237(b) or Section 7237(c) has been met, and, if so, the board shall authorize indemnification. If the board cannot authorize indemnification because the number of directors who are parties to the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is sought prevents formation of a quorum of directors who are not parties to that proceeding, the board shall promptly call a meeting of Directors, At that meeting, the Directors shall determine under Section 7237(c) whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 7237(b) or Section 7237(c) has been met, and, if so, the Directors present at the meeting in person or by proxy shall authorize indemnification.

Section 3. Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by law, and except as otherwise determined by the board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under Sections I and 2 of this article, and of these bylaws, in defending and proceeding covered by those section shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for those expenses.

ARTICLE VIII. INSURANCE

The corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its officers, directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any officer, director, employee, or agent in such capacity, or arising out of the officer's, director's, employee's, or agent's status as such.

CERTIFICATE OF SECRETARY

I, the undersigned, certify that I am the presently elected and acting secretary of the SANTA BARBARA COUNTY FIRE SAFE COUNCIL, a California nonprofit public benefit corporation, and that the above bylaws, consisting of pages 1- 12 are the Bylaws of this corporation as adopted at a meeting of the board of directors held on August 21, 1997 and are now pages 1-8, as amended at a meeting of the board of directors held on August 18, 2016, and as amended at a meeting of the board of directors held on February 21, 2019, and as amended at a meeting of the board of directors on June 27, 2024.

Secretary
